CHAD WHITE

With over 30 years of behind the chair experience and 15 years in education, Chad White brings a knowledge-rich, engaging, and accessible teaching style. Hair loss is a sensitive and often complex issue, but with the right tools, including science-backed, safe, and effective ingredients, you can transform both your clients' lives and your business. With Zenagen, addressing hair loss doesn't have to be complicated.

Join this class to understand the who, what, why, and when behind ZENAGEN. After this session, you will be able to confidently suggest and recommend ZENAGEN products to all of your clients.
